Thank you for the many messages of encouragement, kindness and your good wishes over the last days and weeks. It has been the most extraordinary Holy Week, and it feels so strange not to be able to come together as we normally would to celebrate Easter. However, you have all been present in quite a different way in my thoughts and prayers as I and the rest of the ministry team have been preparing services, reflections, prayers.

I do hope you have found something to nourish and carry you through these times in all the resources which have been made available locally and nationally.

We are so blessed to live in such wonderfully supportive communities where everyone pulls together to help one another and bring joy to each other in such times as these. Hope is alive!

Wishing you all a blessed Easter

Linda and Richard
