A prayer for the new Bishop of Salisbury:

God of our calling, you lead us wisely through the journey of our lives, ever revealing to us new possibilities of service and new places to make our home.

Bless Bishop Stephen in his new ministry as Bishop of Salisbury, that through his work with us, the love, creativity and joy of Jesus Christ would be more fully known in our communities, diocese, and our world, through the same Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Bishop Stephen will be welcomed to the diocese on Sunday 19th June at a special service at Salisbury Cathedral at 3pm, to which everyone is invited to attend.

Please pray for Bishop Stephen, his wife Carol and their family.

Support Ukraine

More information from the Church of England and Salisbury Diocese about how you can help is available here

God of peace and justice, We pray for the people of Ukraine today. We pray for peace and the laying down of weapons. We pray for all those who fear for tomorrow, that your Spirit of comfort would draw near to them. We pray for those with power over war or peace or wisdom, discernment and compassion to guide their decisions. Above all, we pray for all your precious children, at risk and in fear, that you would hold and protect them. We pray in the name of Jesus, the Prince of Peace. Amen.

Readings for Trinity Sunday

Collect

Holy God,
faithful and unchanging:
enlarge our minds with the knowledge of your truth,
and draw us more deeply into the mystery of your love,
that we may truly worship you,
Father, Son and Holy Spirit,
one God, now and for ever.

Psalm 8

You have set your glory above the heavens.

Out of the mouths of babes and infants
you have founded a bulwark because of your foes, to silence the enemy and the avenger.

When I look at your heavens, the work of your fingers,
the moon and the stars that you have established;
what are human beings that you are mindful of them,
mortals that you care for them?

Yet you have made them a little lower than God,
and crowned them with glory and honour.
You have given them dominion over the works of your hands;
you have put all things under their feet,
all sheep and oxen,
and also the beasts of the field,
the birds of the air, and the fish of the sea,
whatever passes along the paths of the seas.

O Lord, our Sovereign,
how majestic is your name in all the earth!

Proverbs 8:1-4,22-31

Does not wisdom call,
and does not
understanding raise her voice?
On the heights, beside
the way,
at the crossroads she
takes her stand;
beside the gates in front
of the town,
at the entrance of the
portals she cries out:
'To you, O people, I call,
and my cry is to all that live.

The Lord created me at the beginning of his work,
the first of his acts of long ago.
Ages ago I was set up,
at the first, before the beginning of the earth.

When there were no depths I was brought forth,
when there were no springs abounding with water.
Before the mountains had been shaped,
before the hills, I was brought forth—
when he had not yet made earth and fields, or the world's first bits of soil.

When he established the heavens, I was there,
when he drew a circle on the face of the deep,
when he made firm the skies above,
when he established the fountains of the deep,
when he assigned to the sea its limit,
so that the waters might not transgress his command,
when he marked out the foundations of the earth,
then I was beside him, like a master worker;
and I was daily his delight, rejoicing before him always,
rejoicing in his inhabited world
and delighting in the human race.

Romans 5:1-5

Therefore, since we are justified by faith, we have peace with God through our Lord Jesus Christ, through whom we have obtained access to this grace in which we stand; and we boast in our hope of sharing the glory of God. And not only that, but we also boast in our sufferings, knowing that suffering produces endurance, and endurance produces character, and character produces hope, and hope does not disappoint us, because God's love has been poured into our hearts through the Holy Spirit that has been given to us.

John 16:12-15

'I still have many things to say to you, but you cannot bear them now. When the Spirit of truth comes, he will guide you into all the truth; for he will not speak on his own, but will speak whatever he hears, and he will declare to you the things that are to come. He will glorify me, because he will take what is mine and declare it to you. All that the Father has is mine. For this reason I said that he will take what is mine and declare it to you.

What if, instead of thinking in terms of triangles and hierarchy, we see the Trinity as a circle? God the Father, Son and Holy Spirit in a dance of eternal, equal relationship...of Creator, Redeemer, Sustainer. A dance into which we are invited... where we truly dwell in God.
