RIDE+STRIDES
for Churches

Join us in 2022 - 10 September

As usual Mary and I will be attempting to raise funds for Christ Church Derry Hill and the Wiltshire Historic Churches Trust. We normally cycle, but this year, as Richard is recovering from an operation, we are 'Striding'. We aim to leave Christ Church at 11am and walk via public footpaths to the Chapel in Bowood House, have refreshments and return.

If you would like to be sponsored, we'd love to have you along as part of an informal group. Lord Lansdowne has generously offered free entry to Bowood and refreshments to all those sponsored. Please contact me for a sponsorship form if you would like to participate.

If you would like to sponsor Mary and I to raise some much-needed cash for these deserving charities, please go to our JustGiving Page or just pop something in an envelope through our door, with your name on. Thanks in advance, Richard Aylen, 1, Redhill Close, Derry Hill.

Readings for Trinity 11

Collect

God of glory,
the end of our searching,
help us to lay aside
all that prevents us from seeking your kingdom,
and to give all that we have
to gain the pearl beyond all price,
through our Saviour Jesus Christ.

Psalm 112

Praise the Lord!

Happy are those who fear the Lord,
who greatly delight in his commandments.
Their descendants will be mighty in the land;
the generation of the upright will be blessed.
Wealth and riches are in their houses,
and their righteousness endures for ever.
They rise in the darkness as a light for the upright;
they are gracious, merciful, and righteous.
It is well with those who deal generously and lend,
who conduct their affairs with justice.
For the righteous will never be moved;
they will be remembered for ever.
They are not afraid of evil tidings;
their hearts are firm, secure in the Lord.
Their hearts are steady, they will not be afraid;
in the end they will look in triumph on their foes.
They have distributed freely, they have given to the poor;
their righteousness endures for ever;
their horn is exalted in honour.
The wicked see it and are angry;
they gnash their teeth and melt away;
the desire of the wicked comes to nothing.

Proverbs 25:6-7

Do not put yourself forward in the king's presence
or stand in the place of the great;
for it is better to be told, 'Come up here',
than to be put lower in the presence of a noble.

Hebrews 13:1-8,15-16

Let mutual love continue. Do not neglect to show hospitality to strangers, for by doing that some have entertained angels without knowing it. Remember those who are in prison, as though you were in prison with them; those who are being tortured, as though you yourselves were being tortured. Let marriage be held in honour by all, and let the marriage bed be kept undefiled; for God will judge fornicators and adulterers. Keep your lives free from the love of money, and be content with what you have; for he has said, 'I will never leave you or forsake you.' So we can say with confidence,

'The Lord is my helper;
I will not be afraid.

What can anyone do to me?'

Remember your leaders, those who spoke the word of God to you; consider the outcome of their way of life, and imitate their faith. Jesus Christ is the same yesterday and today and for ever. Through him, then, let us continually offer a sacrifice of praise to God, that is, the fruit of lips that confess his name. Do not neglect to do good and to share what you have, for such sacrifices are pleasing to God.

Luke 14:1,7-14

On one occasion when Jesus was going to the house of a leader of the Pharisees to eat a meal on the sabbath, they were watching him closely.

When he noticed how the guests chose the places of honour, he told them a parable. 'When you are invited by someone to a wedding banquet, do not sit down at the place of honour, in case someone more distinguished than you has been invited by your host; and the host who invited both of you may come and say to you, "Give this person your place", and then in disgrace you would start to take the lowest place. But when you are invited, go and sit down at the lowest place, so that when your host comes, he may say to you, "Friend, move up higher"; then you will be honoured in the presence of all who sit at the table with you. For all who exalt themselves will be humbled, and those who humble themselves will be exalted.' He said also to the one who had invited him, 'When you give a luncheon or a dinner, do not invite your friends or your brothers or your relatives or rich neighbours, in case they may invite you in return, and you would be repaid. But when you give a banquet, invite the poor, the crippled, the lame, and the blind. And you will be blessed, because they cannot repay you, for you will be repaid at the resurrection of the righteous.'

'The Meal' by Sieger Köder

To ponder...

In 258 the Roman governor demanded that the Church's wealth be brought to him. Laurence, a Deacon at Rome, gathered all the poor, the outcast, the excluded and presented them, declaring that these are the treasures of the Church. St. Laurence was martyred and his feast day is celebrated on 10th August.

I wonder, do we acknowledge that our calling goes beyond serving the poor, feeding the hungry, clothing the naked...to seeing the marginalised and oppressed as honoured guests? Who truly has a seat at the table? How hospitable are we as a church? How accessible are our churches in physical terms
